ATTACHMENT ADRAFTNYSPHSAA SUGGESTED PENALTIES (Revised 2-13-08)

To be used as consequences for violations of NYSPHSAA bylaws & eligibility standards, NYSPHSAA sports standards, NYSED Commissioner's Regulations and for any ethics and integrity violations that have compromised the interscholastic athletic program. (These consequences would be in addition to existing NYSPHSAA regulations.)

COACH INFRACTION:

First violation of regulations and standards:

- ◆ The coach would be declared ineligible for a minimum of 25% of the permitted contests in that sport. The contests are the next previously scheduled contests. The coach is ineligible to coach in that sport until the penalty is served at the level the violation occurred. If needed, the consequence will carry over to the next season of that sport. (Examples include: 3 football games (25% of 10 games rounded up), 5 basketball games (25% of 20 games), 6 wrestling contests (25% of 22 points rounded up) and 5 soccer games (25% of 18 games rounded up). In the event of a fraction the number of contests will be rounded by standard rounding procedures. The coach would be required to attend the next mandatory eligibility workshop.
- ◆ The school district would be required to submit a remediation plan to enhance the supervision of the coach & athletic program.
 - If the school/district fails to comply with any of the above requirements the school will be ineligible for post season competition in all sports for a period of one year

Any additional violation – If the same or any other regulation or standard is violated during the two-year period from the date of the first infraction.

- ◆ The coach would be declared ineligible to coach in any NYSPHSAA approved event. The school would be placed on probation for a period of one year.
- ◆ If the same or any other regulation or standard is violated after the two-year period has been completed, the coach would be declared ineligible for a minimum of 50% of the permitted contests in that sport. (See above)

NOTE: If the school/district fails to comply with any of the above requirements the school will be ineligible for post season competition in all sports for a period of one year.

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATIVE INFRACTION: Not sport or level specific

First Violation of regulations and standards:

- ◆ AD required to attend the next full mandatory eligibility workshop
- ◆ School placed on probation for length of time determined by the Section
- ◆ School district required to submit plan for program supervision and compliance regarding the NYSPHSAA and NYSED regulation that was violated.
 - If the school/district fails to comply with any of the above requirements the school will be ineligible for post season competition in all sports for a period of one year.

Additional Violations – If the same or any other regulation or standard is violated during the two-year period from the date of the first infraction:

The NYSPHSAA will assess a monetary fine equal to the school NYSPHSAA dues and the school will be placed on probation. In multiple HS districts, the fine shall be equal to the school's portion of the district's annual NYSPHSAA dues.

NOTE: If the school/district fails to comply with any of the above requirements, the school will be ineligible for post season competition in all sports for a period of one year.

Note: Revenues accrued will be used for educational workshops devoted to clarify NYSPHSAA rules & regulations.

All violations reported to and/or reviewed by the League or Section Athletic Council must be reported to the NYSPHSAA Office for review to ensure compliance with all NYSPHSAA Rules and regulations. Appeal Procedure: School districts will follow the current appeal process in their Section and NYSPHSAA. A procedure will be established so an individual coach may appeal.

The Handbook Committee recommends that each Section establish a committee to review all violations of NYSPHSAA rules and regulations.
